

CRICKET NEW BRUNSWICK

DISCIPLINARY POLICY

Players and Team Officials

Cricket New Brunswick is committed to maintaining the standard of discipline for its programs and it is governed by the Cricket New Brunswick policies and procedures, code of conduct. The executive board will take necessary steps to address any incidents of misconduct as needed.

All Players and Team Officials are required to comply with all the provisions of the Cricket New Brunswick (CNB) Code of Conduct. Abradingly, by their participation or assistance in a Player's participation or other involvement (Team Official) in a match organized by CNB and/or member leagues and clubs, such Players or Team Officials shall be deemed to have agreed to the Code of Conduct of CNB and ICC if incident is not mention in the CNB Code of conduct. It is the players and team official's personal responsibility to familiarize themselves with all the requirements of the Code of Conduct of CNB and ICC. The Code of Conduct is not intended to limit the responsibilities of any Player or Team Official. As a rule, the Captain of the side is responsible for the behavior and conduct of the players in the team. Apart from the charged player(s), the Captain and/or team may also be depending on the degree of the offence / infraction being adjudicated. The Code of Conduct will be strictly adhered and on occurrence of any such Code of Conduct infractions and reported by Umpire/member leagues/clubs' officials, CNB disciplinary committee will call for hearing.

Committee jurisdiction:

In case of any disputes and contradictions, the disciplinary committee will adjudicate as to the correct interpretation and application of the Code of Conduct.

Suspensions: All suspensions will be effective immediately,

- CNB sanctioned tournament
 - o Suspension will be effective as of the next scheduled tournament match.
 - o If the infraction was during the last played match of the tournament for the team or if the suspension(s) cannot be served completely during the current tournament, the suspension(s) will apply to the player (s)/offender(s)/team(s) from participating in the next CNB organized tournament.
 - o The suspension(s) of players will apply irrespective of the Team under which the player is seeking subsequent entrance into a CNB Tournament.
 - o A Team suspension will also carry forward despite a change of name if proven to be the same suspended team.

- Member leagues/Clubs

- o If the infraction was during the member leagues/Clubs matches, the suspension(s) will be implemented and monitor by the league executives

- o If the suspension cannot be served completely during the current season, the suspension(s) will carry forward and apply to the player (s)/offender(s)/team(s) in the following/next season.

Appeal process:

- There is NO APPEAL for a Level-1 & 2 infraction charge.
- For an infraction of the magnitude of Level-3, Level-4 and/or General Offences, a player/team/club has a right to appeal within the set timeframe specified by the disciplinary committee with each infraction level. This appeal, along with the appeals processing fee of $100 must reach the chair of the tournament committee, along with all documentation, pictures or evidence that relate to the case and will support the appeal. Failure to do so within the set timeframe will void the right of the player/team to dispute the decision of the disciplinary committee and the charge, and the penalties will be served as indicated in the decision.
- In case of an appeal, the player/team cannot play till the appeal process is completed. The applicable fines and the fee for the appeal processing will have to be deposited with the tournament manager as per the set timeframes for the appeal process to start, failing which, the appeal will be rejected.
